Bring the magic of ballet to your community this year

Queensland Ballet's Dance Camps for children are a great way to bring artistry and physical activity to your community

Regional arts organisations and councils have a unique opportunity to provide an in-depth experience for students who love to dance, are looking for a creative outlet to learn more about the magic of the ballet and need a physical activity during the school holidays.

The four-day Dance Camps are created to enrich lives and enhance community wellbeing in regional Queensland, while reinforcing diverse technical and expressive skills.

My child loves dancing but living in a rural area restricts her exposure to the arts. Opportunities like the Dance Camp show the children what they can achieve through dance and the arts if that is their passion.

With new and old friends alike, participants will perfect their technique and practice their pirouettes under the careful guidance of Queensland Ballet's Teaching Artists.

Through joy, laughter and community spirit Queensland Ballet's Dance Camps are guaranteed to make art a part of daily life.

DANCE CAMPS:

build meaningful and collaborative relationships with your state ballet company

cost each family less than an average week of childcare create a lifelong passion for the arts

uncover the magic of ballet in a fun and engaging way

With families, friends, dance teachers and community members attending each camp showcase, the collaboration is truly a celebration of the arts

Our Dance Camps are made possible by the meaningful partnerships we have with regional arts organisations and councils. We work collaboratively with you to ensure your camp is tailored to the specific needs of your community. Dance Camp partnership fees are negotiated by location.

- Since the program began in 2015, we have delivered 10 camps reaching almost 450 young dancers.
- So far, the farthest we have travelled to deliver a dance camp is 1,200 kilometres from Queensland Ballet's studios in Brisbane!
